

THE TINNISWOOD AWARD 2018

Applications are now open for the 2018 Tinniswood Award, for audio drama scripts broadcast or made available online between 1 October 2016 and 31 October 2017.

The Tinniswood Award is presented annually to the best original audio drama script of the year. The award was established by the Society of Authors and the Writers' Guild of Great Britain to celebrate and encourage high standards in audio drama, and perpetuate the memory of the writer Peter Tinniswood. We are deeply grateful to the Authors' Licensing and Collecting Society for their generous sponsorship of the £2,000 prize.

GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Eligibility

Any audio drama script first broadcast or made available online within the UK by a UK-based producer during the period 1 October 2016 - 31 October 2017. The work must be an original piece for audio as broadcast and may also include the first episode from an original series or serial. When submitting 15 minute episodes from a series or serial we will require consecutive episodes (including the first episode) to make up at least 45 minutes. The judges reserve the right to call in the subsequent episodes if required. We welcome 30 minute plays provided that they were stand-alone and that characters and situations are original to the writer.

An adaptation for radio of a piece commissioned for any other medium e.g. stage, television, film, novel, poem or a short story will not be eligible.

Judging

Three judges will be selected in consultation with the committees of the SoA Broadcasting Group and the Writers' Guild Radio Committee. Correspondence with the judges is forbidden and their decision is final.

Presentation

The Tinniswood Award will be presented at the BBC Audio Awards in January 2018.
